

Hub

Hub comes in a range of ideal compositions to fulfil, from a functional perspective, the storage needs of a bedroom, a dressing room and of living spaces. It features elegant wooden structures matching different materials on the tops, whereas the front panels are made either of wood with a folding technique or of silk-screened glass with fine leather or marble details. Starting from the basic element, the drawer, Hub develops in a wide system of container types ranging from nightstands to functional cabinets and fine chests of drawers to be placed in the middle of the cupboard area - available in multiple versions
